Definition

The Bunny Competition for Golfing Excellence is an annual competition for the prestigious Bunny Cup trophy. The aim is to bring the family together.

1 On Who Can Compete

To participate, a player:

- 1.1 Must be a blood descendent of Bill and Judy Basham,
- 1.2 Or be in a committed relationship with an otherwise qualified participant.
- 1.3 Or participate with the majority consent of the previous year's contenders.

2 On Choosing the Competition's Activity

- 2.1 While the trophy was originally intended for a golfing competition, it was subsequently agreed that the competition may be based on any activity chosen by the previous year's winner.
- 2.2 The current holder of the trophy has the absolute right to choose the activity partaken the following year.
- 2.3 The chosen activity must enable every participant to compete, as far as possible, with a reasonable chance of winning.
- 2.4 The current holder is not obliged to name the activity until the day of the competition.
